Richmond-Area High School Students to Explore How We Are All #MoreThanAStereotype at 6th Annual Diversity Dialogue Day

What: Diversity Dialogue Day

When: Tuesday, November 17, 2015 from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Where: University of Richmond, Tyler Haynes Commons, Richmond, VA 23173

Who: Over 200 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students and educators from Richmond area public and private high schools will come together in a hands-on workshop setting to learn lessons about diversity, discrimination, and respect that they will then bring back to their peers at school. Schools in attendance represent the city of Richmond and the counties of Chesterfield, Goochland, Hanover, Henrico, New Kent, and Prince George. Diversity Dialogue Day is sponsored by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities, with funding support from Dominion Resources.

How: This year's theme is "#MoreThanAStereotype," with a curriculum taking participants through a process of awareness-to-action. Students will learn to recognize stereotypes and understand how they contribute to prejudice and intolerance. They will work closely with their peers from a wide range of ethnic, cultural and socio-economic backgrounds as trained facilitators guide them through small group learning activities that will explore personal experiences with discrimination. At the end of the day, students will leave with practical skills to help make their schools more inclusive.
