COMMUNITY INVITED TO COME TOGETHER TO
“RVA TABLE TALK” CONVERSATION ON RACE

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities is pleased to launch the 2017 - 2018 RVA Table Talk Series. Sponsored by Altria Group, RVA Table Talk aims to create opportunities for communities in different sectors to engage in challenging conversations about diversity and inclusion. Each session will focus on a topic and participants will share stories, perspectives, and aim to create action steps to issues facing the community. It is hoped that the sessions help community members build connections and share information. The initial RVA Table Talk topic will focus on race and the impact it has had on our community, and is co-sponsored by the City of Richmond's Office of Multicultural Affairs.

What: RVA Table Talk: Race

When: Wednesday, October 25, 2017 from 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM

Where: Richmond Public Library, Main Branch (101 E Franklin St, Richmond)

Who: 80 diverse community members have registered to attend. The event is currently at capacity.

How: The program will include a presentation, reflections, and table discussions. Table discussions will provide attendees with deeper opportunities to connect, learn, and build skills.

Why: To build connection with others from different backgrounds in hopes of creating a more equitable and just Richmond.
