

Alvin Wall to be honored by Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities

Thursday, April 7, reception 5:45 pm, program and dinner 6:30 pm

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities' Humanitarian Awards Dinner honors individuals who have identified a commitment to the promotion of respect and understanding among people of diverse racial, ethnic and religious backgrounds.

Alvin Wall, a 2016 honoree of the prestigious award, has been involved with many non-profits, including a term as past president of United Jewish Federation of Tidewater.

The event will take place at the Norfolk Waterside Marriott.

The United Jewish Federation of Tidewater and Tidewater Jewish Foundation are organizing tables for the event. To attend, and sit at a UJFT-TJF table, call or e-mail Samantha Golden at 965-6124 or Sgolden@UJFT.org.
