Tidewater-Area High School Students Break Down Bullying at 8th Annual Diversity Dialogue Day

What: Diversity Dialogue Day

When: Monday, March 6, 2017 from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Where: Old Dominion University, Webb Center, Norfolk, VA 23529

Who: Over 150 high school students and educators from Chesapeake, Norfolk, Portsmouth and Virginia Beach will come together in a hands-on workshop setting to learn lessons about diversity, discrimination, and respect. Diversity Dialogue Day is sponsored by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities with support from Dominion Resources.

How: This year's theme is Breaking Down Bullying, with a curriculum taking participants through a process of awareness-to-action. Students will learn to understand their own identities and consider how those identities may relate to incidents of bias and exclusion in their school. They will work closely with their peers from a wide range of ethnic, cultural and socio-economic backgrounds as trained facilitators guide them through small group learning activities that will explore personal experiences with discrimination. At the end of the day, students will leave with practical skills to help make their schools more inclusive.
