COMMUNITY INVITED TO COME TOGETHER TO “RVA TABLE TALK” CONVERSATION ON YOUTH

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities invites the Richmond community to an RVA Table Talk event focused on “Youth – Challenges and Opportunities.” Sponsored by Altria Group, RVA Table Talk creates opportunities for community members to engage in challenging conversations about diversity and inclusion. Each session focuses on a specific topic and participants have the opportunity to share stories, perspectives, and ideas regarding issues facing the community. Partners for this RVA Table Talk session are the Armstrong Leadership Program and Partnership for the Future.

- What: RVA Table Talk: “Youth – Challenges and Opportunities”
- When: Thursday, March 7, 2019 from 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM
- Where: Temple Beth-El (3330 Grove Ave., Richmond, VA 23221)
- Who: This event is free and open to the public. Registration is required.
- How: The program will include dinner, a short presentation, reflections, and conversation. Table discussions will provide attendees with deeper opportunities to connect, learn, and build skills.
- Why: To build connections with others from different backgrounds in hopes of creating a more equitable and just Richmond.
