About Virginia Inclusion Summit

The Virginia Inclusion Summit brought together higher education students and administrators, workplace professionals, and government employees for a day of learning, sharing, and connecting. The program included dynamic keynote speakers and interactive breakout sessions, along with opportunities to network across sectors. The Virginia Inclusion Summit focused on current events and identified best practices to help institutions across Virginia become more equitable and inclusive.

In Their Own Words:

- ▶ "This was the 1st professional development I've attended in 11 years that I can honestly say: I've learned something today, I've learned about other's views and . . . I've become a better professional after this."
- ▶ "I am so glad that I was able to participate! It was amazing to be able to have open dialogues in a diverse group. Thank you!"
- ▶ "I loved this event . . . I learned a lot about how to address and talk about diversity."
- ▶ "The topics were very timely and relevant. Keynote speaker blew my mind! Loved!"
- ▶ "The ability to speak with and learn from others . . . and gaining new ideas and strategies is helpful."
- ▶ "Loved it! 100% would recommend."

About VCIC

VIRGINIA CENTER FOR
COMMUNITIES

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities works with schools, businesses, and communities to achieve success by addressing prejudices, in all forms, in order to improve academic achievement, increase workplace productivity, and enhance local trust. Through workshops, retreats, and customized programs that raise knowledge, motivation, and skills, VCIC develops leaders who work together to achieve success throughout the Commonwealth.
