INAUGURAL VIRGINIA INCLUSION SUMMIT IS TO BE HELD ON JANUARY 25 AT REYNOLDS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

RICHMOND, VA – The inaugural Virginia Inclusion Summit will take place on January 25, 2019, at Reynolds Community College’s Parham Road Campus (1651 E. Parham Road Richmond, VA 23228). This Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities program will bring together higher education students and administrators, workplace professionals, and government employees for a day of learning, sharing, and connecting.

The program will include a dynamic keynote from Dr. Michael “Mykee” Fowlin, interactive breakout sessions, along with opportunities to network across sectors. Attendees will be able to participate in tracks in their peer group and have opportunities to work across cohorts to come up with innovative solutions to challenges they face. The Virginia Inclusion Summit will focus on current events and identify best practices to help institutions across Virginia become more equitable and inclusive.

CarMax is the Platinum Sponsor of the Virginia Inclusion Summit. Other sponsors include Altria Group (Silver), and SunTrust Bank (Bronze), and our host, Reynolds Community College.

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities works with schools, businesses, and communities to achieve success by addressing prejudices, in all forms, in order to improve academic achievement, increase workplace productivity, and enhance local trust. Through workshops, retreats, and customized programs that raise knowledge, motivation, and skills, VCIC develops leaders who work together to achieve success throughout the Commonwealth.

For more information about the organization or the event, contact Jonathan Zur, CEO, or the staff at 804-515-7950. Information about the Virginia Inclusion Summit may also be found online at www.inclusiveVA.org/VIS.
