Richmond-Area High School Students to Explore Class and Socioeconomic Status at 10th Annual Diversity Dialogue Day

What: Diversity Dialogue Day

When: November 20, 2019 from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Where: University of Richmond – Tyler Hanes Commons

Who: Over 185 high school students and educators from schools in Chesterfield, Goochland, Hanover, Henrico, Powhatan, Prince George, and the City of Richmond will come together in a hands-on workshop setting to learn lessons about diversity, discrimination, and respect.

Diversity Dialogue Day is sponsored by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities with support from Dominion Energy.

How: This year's theme is "Exploring Class and Socioeconomic Status," with a curriculum that will take participants through a process of awareness-to-action. Students will learn to recognize prejudice and intolerance, and to respect others. They will work closely with their peers from a wide range of ethnic, cultural and socio-economic backgrounds. Trained facilitators will guide the students through a series of small group learning activities that explore personal experiences. Students will leave the program with tools they can use to create school and community environments free from the distractions of prejudice, stereotypes, and bigotry.
