Tidewater-Area High School Students Learn to Stand Up to Stereotypes at 11th Annual Diversity Dialogue Day

What: Diversity Dialogue Day

When: Tuesday, March 10, 2019 from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Where: Old Dominion University, Webb Center, Norfolk, VA 23529

Who: Over 150 high school students and educators from public and private schools in Chesapeake, Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Virginia Beach will come together in a hands-on workshop setting to learn lessons about diversity, discrimination, and respect. Diversity Dialogue Day is conducted by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities with support from Dominion Energy.

How: This year's theme is "Standing up to Stereotypes," with a curriculum that will take participants through a process of awareness-to-action. Students will learn to recognize prejudice and intolerance and to respect others. They will work closely with their peers from a wide range of ethnic, cultural, and socio-economic backgrounds. Trained facilitators will guide the students through a series of small group learning activities that explore personal experiences. Students will leave the program with tools they can use to create school and community environments free from the distractions of prejudice, stereotypes, and bigotry.
