Lynchburg-Area High School Students Learn to Break the Cycle of Prejudice at 13th Annual Diversity Dialogue Day

What: Diversity Dialogue Day

When: Thursday, March 3, 2022 from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m.

Where: Online

Who: Nearly 50 students and educators from Appomattox County, Bedford County, and Lynchburg City Schools will participate in discussions and activities around diversity, discrimination, and respect.

How: Students will view "Break the Cycle: Be the Change," a presentation that examines the concept of prejudice. They will then meet in intentionally diverse breakout groups to build connections, learn from peers their age, and develop strategies to stand up to prejudice within their schools.

For More Information: <https://inclusiveVA.org/diversitydialogueday>

Supporters: Diversity Dialogue Day is conducted by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities, with financial support from Dominion Energy. Coalition partners from the University of Lynchburg and the YWCA of Central Virginia help to create this opportunity for Lynchburg high school students.
