FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KECOUGHTAN AND PHOEBUS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO GAIN SKILLS TO REDUCE BULLYING AND PROMOTE INCLUSION AT PROJECT INCLUSION

Williamsburg, VA – Over 55 students and educators from Kecoughtan and Phoebus High Schools will participate in the Project Inclusion retreat program conducted by the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities. The program takes place from Thursday, February 9, 2023 – Sunday, February 12, 2023 at the Jamestown 4-H Educational Center.

Project Inclusion brings high school students together to discuss a variety of topics, including diversity, identity, prejudice, and inclusive leadership. While at Project Inclusion, participants gain valuable skills to help them deal with group dynamics, conflict management, intergroup relations, communication, and advocacy. Students develop action plans in order to help bring about inclusive changes in their school culture. They return from the program as empowered and skilled agents of change and unity, having adopted a goal to reduce bias and prejudice.

“Through Project Inclusion, students are able to better demonstrate understanding and appreciation for their peers and neighbors who are from the variety of racial, religious, and ethnic groups that make up their schools and surrounding community,” says Jonathan Zur, President & CEO of the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities.

Student participants overwhelmingly agree that the program provides the skills to help them identify issues and to work for different causes. Over 97% of past participants believe that Project Inclusion will help them to contribute to people getting along better in their schools. One student commented that as a result of Project Inclusion, “I can be the difference I wish to see in my school and I can be an inspiration to others.”

Members of the press are invited to visit Project Inclusion anytime during the retreat. The preferred visiting times are: Thursday, February 9 from 7:30pm – 9:30pm; Saturday, February 11 from 7:00pm – 9:30pm; and Sunday, February 12 from 9:45am – 11:45am. Students and educators will be available for interviews.
